Meals (Alaska, Hawaii, and U.S. Possessions)
  o Travelers may claim a meal per diem for the destination of travel
  o Rates (Local Meals for a location) are set by the Department of Defense
  o Link: http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/perdienmtCalc.cfm
  o Partial days are pro-rated according to duration spent in location. For partial days, hours should be rounded to the nearest quarter day as follows:
    - 3 hours up to 9 hours equals ¼ day or 25% (of the Local Meals Rate)
    - 9 hours up to 15 hours equals ½ day or 50% (of the Local Meals Rate)
    - 15 hours up to 21 hours equals ¾ day or 75% (of the Local Meals Rate)
    - 21 hours up to 24 hours equals 1 day or 100% (of the Local Meals Rate)
  o If a meal is provided, the Local Meals Rate must be reduced by the value of the furnished meal (if the actual value of the meal is not known, the traveler may provide an estimated cost)
  o A copy of the Local Meals Rate for that location (including calculations for partial days and deductions from the Meal Allowance) must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim
  o Receipts are not required

Meals (international)
  o Travelers may claim a meal per diem for the destination of travel
  o M & IE (meal and incidentals for a location) are maintained by the US Department of State
  o Link: http://aoprals.state.gov/web920/per_diem.asp
Partial days are pro-rated according to duration spent in location. For partial days, hours should be rounded to the nearest quarter day as follows:

- 3 hours up to 9 hours equals ¼ day or 25% (of the Meal Allowance Rate)
- 9 hours up to 15 hours equals ½ day or 50% (of the Meal Allowance Rate)
- 15 hours up to 21 hours equals ¾ day or 75% (of the Meal Allowance Rate)
- 21 hours up to 24 hours equals 1 day or 100%

If a meal is provided, the M & IE Rate must be reduced by the value of the furnished meal (if the actual value of the meal is not known, the traveler may provide an estimated cost).

A copy of the Foreign Per Diem Rates (including calculations for partial days and deductions from the Meal Allowance) must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim.

Receipts are not required.

C) Incidents

An incidental expense includes fees and tips given to porters, baggage carriers, bellhops, hotel housekeepers, etc.

Incidentals may not be claimed for travel less than 24 hours.

Incidentals – travel greater than 24 hours (contiguous 48 states)

- Incidental expenses may be claimed only if the travel is greater than 25 miles from the traveler’s headquarters or residence.
- Actual expense incurred up to the daily limit of $7.
- Receipts are not required.

Incidentals (Alaska, Hawaii, and U.S. Possessions)

- Travelers may claim an incidental per diem for the destination of travel.
- Rates (Local Incidental Rate for a location) are set by the Department of Defense.
- Link: http://www.defensetravel.dod.mil/site/perdiemCalc.cfm
- Receipts are not required.

Incidentals (international)

- Travelers may claim an incidental per diem for the destination of travel.
- M & IE (meal and incidentals for a location) are maintained by the US Department of State.
- Link: http://aoprals.state.gov/web920/per_diem.asp
- Receipts are not required.

D) Airfare and Baggage

If there will be economy-class/coach airfare expenses (upgrades to business class or first class, early bird check-in fee, Even More Space, extra leg room, etc. may not be charged to a Procurement Card or claims may not be submitted).

Travel Packages

- Each aspect of the travel package must be separately itemized on the receipt (e.g., itemized hotel charges, airfare, rental car, shuttle, etc.) for reimbursement or allowable Procurement Card charge.
- No business-related travel should be booked through a vendor unless the traveler has confirmed with the vendor that each aspect of the package will be separately itemized on the receipt.

A reservation for reasonable airfare should only be made after an approved Travel Request has been submitted to Travel Operations (CP-300) and the traveler has received an email notification with the assigned travel document number.

- Purchase the airline ticket directly from an airline, travel agency, or online via the internet.
- The traveler may purchase additional insurance; however, the additional insurance may not be charged to a University issued credit card and the traveler will not be reimbursed for this expense.
- If the airfare was charged to a University issued credit card, a copy of the receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim and the original receipt must be attached to the Procurement Card statement.
- If a copy of the Foreign Per Diem Rates (including calculations for partial days and deductions from the Meal Allowance) must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim the original receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to your Travel Expense Claim (credit card statement or bank statement is not a receipt).

The traveler may claim reimbursement for checked baggage that is considered reasonable and necessary for the business purpose and length of the trip.

- The approving authority is responsible for determining if the baggage fees are appropriate.
- Department approval may request the traveler to provide a justification memo.
Travelers’ reimbursed from federal grants and contracts must only use U.S. carriers under the Fly America Act unless one of the following exceptions applies:

- Use of U.S. carrier service would extend travel time, including delay at origin, by 24 hours or more
- U.S. carriers do not offer nonstop or direct service between origin and destination (however, a U.S. carrier must be used on every portion of the route where it provides service unless, when compared to using an international air carrier, such use would:
  - Increase the number of aircraft changes outside the United States by two or more
  - Extend travel time by at least 6 hours or more
  - Require a connecting time of 4 hours or more at an overseas interchange point
- When the costs of transportation are reimbursed in full by a third party, such as an international government or an international agency

Reimbursement of travel on an international air carrier may be denied in the absence of such justification

E) Rental Car, Rental Truck or University Vehicle

Travel Packages

- Each aspect of the travel package must be separately itemized on the receipt (e.g., itemized hotel charges, airfare, rental car, shuttle, etc.) for reimbursement or allowable Procurement Card charge
- No business-related travel should be booked through a vendor unless the traveler has confirmed with the vendor that each aspect of the package will be separately itemized on the receipt

A reservation for a rental car should only be made after an approved Travel Request has been submitted to Travel Operations (CP-300) and the traveler has received an email notification with the assigned travel document number

- Extra charges (damage waiver, GPS, Sirius Satellite Radio, etc.) may not be charged to a Procurement Card and the traveler may not be reimbursed for these expenses
- Enterprise Rent A Car is the preferred vendor
- For travel within the United States, insurance is included in the CSUF Fullerton rates with Enterprise
  - The traveler may purchase additional insurance offered by Enterprise or another rental car company; however, if additional insurance is selected, the insurance may not be charged to a Procurement Card and the traveler may not be reimbursed for the expense
- For international travel (including U.S. Possessions), contact Risk Management at (657) 278-7346 for guidance on obtaining the recommended insurance coverage (liability, theft, and collision) for a rental car
  - Since the University’s contract with Enterprise does not extend to international travel, Risk Management recommends that the traveler purchase insurance coverage and the traveler may be reimbursed for this expense
  - Enterprise has rental car locations in Canada, Germany, Ireland, and United Kingdom
  - For other foreign locations, you may select another rental car company
- If the rental car was charged to a Procurement Card, a copy of the itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim and the original receipt must be attached to the Procurement Card statement
- If the rental car was charged to the traveler’s personal credit card, an original itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim (credit card statement or bank statement is not a receipt)

If a rental truck will be used for travel (attach a justification memo)

- A reservation for a rental truck should only be made after an approved Travel Request has been submitted to Travel Operations (CP-300) and the traveler has received an email notification with the assigned travel document number
- Extra charges (damage waiver, GPS, Sirius Satellite Radio, etc.) may not be charged to a Procurement Card and the traveler may not be reimbursed for these expenses
- Enterprise rental truck is the preferred vendor
- If the rental truck was charged to a Procurement Card, a copy of the itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim and the original receipt must be attached to the Procurement Card statement
- If the rental truck was charged to the traveler’s personal credit card, an original receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim (credit card statement or bank statement is not a receipt)

- Contact Enterprise or access the Enterprise website (reservations must be made before arriving at the Enterprise office located at the airport)
  - (800) 228-2325
  - www.enterprise.com
- If renting a vehicle from Enterprise in the Fullerton area, call Rachel Bomgren at the Enterprise Fullerton Office and the CSUF employee may request to be picked up
  - Rachel Bomgren, Branch Manager
  - 729 W. Commonwealth Ave., Fullerton, CA 92832
  - (714) 525-7172
- Provide NA30CSF (CSUF Corporate Number) and CSU (first 3 characters of the Account's name)
- CSUF Corporate number is required to obtain the CSU Fullerton rates and insurance
- Insurance is included in the CSU Fullerton rates with Enterprise
- The traveler may purchase additional insurance offered by Enterprise; however, if additional insurance is selected, the insurance may NOT be charged to a Procurement Card and the traveler will NOT be reimbursed for this expense
- Base Daily Rate for Compact & Intermediate Vehicles is $36.46
- Base Daily Rate for Trucks is $104.99
- Present a valid Driver's License, University-issued Procurement Card or personal credit card, and employee’s CSUF ID/Titan Card when picking up the vehicle to obtain the CSU Fullerton rates and insurance
- If the rental car/truck was charged to a Procurement Card, a copy of the itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim and the original receipt must be attached to the Procurement Card statement
- If the rental car/truck was charged to the traveler’s personal credit card, an original receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim (credit card statement or bank statement is not a receipt)

F) Shuttle (including airport limousine service, if appropriate), Taxi, economy-class Train, or Bus

Travel Packages
- Each aspect of the travel package must be separately itemized on the receipt (e.g., itemized hotel charges, airfare, rental car, shuttle, etc.) for reimbursemement or allowable Procurement Card charge
- No business-related travel should be booked through a vendor unless the traveler has confirmed with the vendor that each aspect of the package will be separately itemized on the receipt

Limos, upgrades to business class on a train may not be charged to a Procurement Card and the traveler may not be reimbursed for these expenses

If a shuttle, taxi or train expense was charged to a Procurement Card, a copy of the itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim and the original receipt must be attached to the Procurement Card statement

If a shuttle, taxi or train expense was charged to the traveler’s personal credit card, an original itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim (credit card statement or bank statement is not a receipt)

G) Self-Parking and Tolls

If there is only valet parking at the hotel, a document from the hotel stating only valet parking must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim

Non-Reimbursable Expenses: FastTrack (or equivalent)
- Exceptions for FastTrack expenditures that arise because of special or unusual circumstances must be documented and approved by the appropriate approving authority

Valet Parking and FastTrack may not be charged to a Procurement Card and the traveler may not be reimbursed for these expenses
If self-parking expense was charged to a Procurement Card, a copy of the itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim and the original receipt must be attached to the Procurement Card statement.

If self-parking expense was charged to the traveler’s personal credit card, an original itemized receipt showing proof of payment must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim (credit card statement or bank statement is not a receipt).

H) Private Vehicle Mileage (no reimbursement when the traveler uses a privately owned motorcycle or motor driven cycle)

The mileage reimbursement rate is 0.50 per mile for travel on January 1, 2010 through December 31, 2012.

Normal Work Location is defined as the place where the major portion of an employee’s working time is spent or the place to which the employee’s department determines what constitutes an individual employee’s work location for the purpose of these procedures.

University business travel occurs on a scheduled work day, mileage is calculated:
- If departing from the traveler’s normal work location, mileage may be claimed from traveler’s work location to destination.
- If departing from the traveler’s residence, mileage may be claimed from the lesser of the two locations (from traveler’s work location to destination or from traveler’s residence to destination).
- If returning to the traveler’s normal work location, mileage may be claimed from destination to traveler’s work location.
- If returning to the traveler’s residence, mileage may be claimed from the lesser of the two locations (from destination to traveler’s work location or from destination to traveler’s residence).

University business travel occurs on a regularly scheduled day off, mileage is calculated:
- From the traveler’s residence.

When a traveler is authorized to drive a private vehicle to or from a common carrier terminal, mileage may be reimbursed as follows:
- One round trip, including parking for the duration of the trip; or
- Two round trips, including short-term parking expenses when an employee is driven to a common carrier.

When the traveler decides to drive a private vehicle instead of flying to a travel destination, the traveler will be reimbursed only for the lesser of the transportation expense (either mileage reimbursement or mileage up to the airfare equivalent).
- Documentation showing the lowest available airfare must be attached to the Travel Expense Claim.

Expenses for travel between the traveler’s residence and normal work location (commuting expense) shall not be allowed.

No reimbursement for private vehicle repairs or gasoline.

School Site Teach Candidate Supervisor (CALState TEACH)
- In their roles as School Site Teacher Candidate Supervisors, faculty will be reimbursed in accordance with the Memorandum of Understanding between theCalifornia Faculty Association and California State University.
- This Memorandum may be found at http://www.calstate.edu/LaborRel/Contracts_HTML/current_eba.shtml.
